Words from the Rabbi...

Look near the end of this article for the most important part of this message. The true gift of the Yamim Noraim (High Holy Days) is not so much that we will get together as a community and welcome in the New Year (though this is beautiful, sacred, and important). The real reward comes with the season's requirement that we take stock of our personal lives, and that we become the agents of our own change.

While our tradition tells us that we need to change in order to placate God, in truth, the Rabbis understood that when we improve ourselves, it is better for us as individuals and it is better for the world. Indeed, so important was this concept that the Rabbis prescribed a system called “Heshbon Hanefesh”, literally an “accounting of the soul”. We are required to thoroughly review our lives and see what is working and what is not. This is not an easy task and I surmise that most of us, myself included, rarely make an adequate effort to fully take advantage of what this assessment offers to us. It is just too easy to push it aside and ask for another helping of brisket.

I am hopeful that you will join me in making this the year that we truly perform this holy task.

There are many ways to do a personal review. While I will provide a few paradigms here, you should feel free to create one for yourself.

One way is to split our lives into its component parts. We can look at our personal lives, our family lives, our community lives, our business lives, our spiritual lives, our synagogue lives, or any part of our life that we feel bears review. We can check how we are doing in each sphere and make a list of changes we would like to make.

Another way is to take the time to focus on different aspects of our “selves”. How is my patience, or my humility, or my diligence, or my decisiveness, or my righteousness, or my cleanliness? When we add up how each aspect is doing, we can calculate where we are.

Yet another way to do an accounting might be to treat your life as if it were a business. In this paradigm, you, as an business owner, might perform an annual review of your business

Words from the Rabbi...

A business owner performs an annual accounting to give an snapshot of where things are and where they might be headed. This also provides the answer to the question of whether the business has been profitable.

So how do we look at the balance sheet that is our lives? I have slightly revised a 5 step practical guide that was prepared by Rabbi Yosef Yitzchak Schneersohn:

First:

Draw two large squares on a paper. Title the first one: "Me and God". Title the second: "Me and other people."

Second:

In the "Me and God" category, write down the various mitzvot you have observed – e.g., Shabbat observance or repairing the world, or studying Torah, or giving tzedakah, and the degree to which you have observed them. Next to each of these mitzvot, write down whether this is an area in which you incurred a profit or loss in the past year.

Third:

In the "Me and other people" section, write down the various relationships you have. How have you gotten along with children, spouses, parents, friends, business partners, and acquaintances? Next to each of these, write whether you became closer to these people, became more distant, or whether you did things you wish you had not done. Have your relationships be profitable, or have they operated at a loss?

Fourth:

Figure out a way to take the losses for the year and turn them into profits. Ask yourself, how you can be a better parent, or grandparent, spouse, or teacher? How can you improve the atmosphere in your home? How can you devote more time to helping those in need, or repairing the world? Are there other areas that don't exist yet on your balance sheet that you should explore? A new mitzvah? A new relationship? A new outlet for who you are?

Fifth:

Look beyond all of the individual behaviors, and analyze the patterns. Try to determine why you are succeeding in some places and failing in others. Then take steps to tailor the big picture so that the year to come is more profitable than the past year.

Words from the Rabbi...

None of this is easy. However, only once we have truly searched to see who we are and how we are doing, can we then figure out a way to change. And only then can we consider helping others to change. This, then, becomes the most important part of this message: WE LIVE IN A WORLD THAT CLEARLY NEEDS CHANGE, AND TO BE CHANGED. ONLY AFTER WE WORK ON OURSELVES CAN WE HOPE TO BE EFFECTIVE AGENTS OF THE CHANGE NEEDED.

Road Trip.....

It has been a while since I had the opportunity to share my thoughts and my rants with you. Though the bus has been parked and the road trips on hiatus, I was asked again, to try my hand at spinning a yarn, and making you think.

By the time you read this Rosh Hashanah will be here. We will be entering the year of 5784, and we will be asking to be inscribed in the book of life for another year. This will require us to show by deeds and actions that we deserve this request. Since Eve took the first bite of the apple from the tree of wisdom, we have been given free will, or the right to make choices. Do we go right or left when we hit a fork in the road, do we eat that second helping of apple pie, do we vote for this person or the other, do we remain members of JCC or not, and if we do; are we active and involved, or just sitting on the sidelines watching, as the parade passes .

I assure you, that my ramblings have a purpose. When Irene and I joined the JCC, we decided that we would get involved, I never thought it would be by serving two terms as president, or Irene and a dedicated group of outstanding women revamping the Sisterhood, into the Women's Auxiliary that stands today. We made the choice to become active members and take leadership roles. We have seen others take up the challenges of leadership, and as long as we are here, we will continue to work with all for the betterment of the JCC. We made the choice, and I think it was the right one. It is now the time for those that were sitting on the sidelines to get into the JCC game. Within the last four years we have seen members step up to become trustees and officers that have never served before. We all should thank them for taking up this task. I for one do, they.

bring new energy, ideas, and life experiences to the JCC. Now it is up to the sideliners, it is your turn to get involved. You can start out working on a committee, there are a lot of committees to work on, like ritual, programing, and membership to name a few. The Women's Auxiliary is always looking for people.

With the summer season almost over, and the holidays upon us it is time for you to choose, for you to take the right path, to have your actions and deeds make a difference for the JCC. Let us keep the JCC on the right path, let it remain the warm friendly place that drew Irene and me to it. Let's keep the JCC the shining light of Judaism in Southern Ocean County not just for the summer, but all year long.

Irene and I wish all of you a La Shanna Tova, an easy fast, and may you and all of those you love be inscribed in the book of life for another year.

Michael your faithful RETIRED bus driver

About the Author

FRED KATZ

Fred Katz is dedicated to the advancement of Judaica studies and preserving the legacies of those who perished in the Holocaust.

His time as a physician in the Vietnam War, steered him to a path of communal and professional service and paved the foundation for this book, which has taken him around the world as he photographed over 100 memorials from Auschwitz to Moscow to New York.

His photographs have been exhibited at the Breman Jewish Museum, the Atlanta Jewish Community Center, and various synagogues.

Katz is also an accomplished speaker, having lectured for the Jewish Federations of North America, radiological societies, and medical schools.

My Road to Remembrance presents a unique opportunity for readers to remember and honor those individuals who perished during the Holocaust. This book captures a great many of the memorials designed and erected to immortalize the lives taken, and it will inspire readers to consider human rights and history.

Katz reminds us that these memorials must be seen and understood. While this collection is not meant to be a complete history or survey of all Holocaust memorials, it is an attempt to capture as many as possible. My Road to Remembrance is an important book for everyone, especially the next generation, so that we may never forget.

REFLECTIONS OF A BAAL TIKEYAH – Stu Lehrer/Religious Chairman

When I was 1 a year old, I was offered the chance to learn how to play a musical instrument - I chose the Trumpet because it is my mother's favorite instrument. Several years later, I engaged in playing the French Horn which is my favorite instrument. So, when during my college years, my childhood Shule, Beth Joseph Center of Rochester NY needed a new Baal Tikeyah, [Shofar Blower], both the Rabbi and the President of the Shule preferred one who might have had an embouchure to conduct the Shofar service. To my great astonishment and joy, they turned to me. By the way, that President at that time was my Father z"l

So, from that moment on, when I blow Shofar, I try to instill a proper Kivanah, a serious and solemn awareness and proper and profound attitude for this tremendous Mitzvah; yet I will be honest that during those moments that I am enacting this remarkable rite, I run the gambit of inner emotions that swirl within me that actually guide and support me.

What I remember most from my first Shofar blowing on that Rosh Hashanah occurred after services were over when I joined up with my parents: upon first encountering them, I will never forget seeing their heartfelt expression of love and pride that no words could properly express. That memory is one of the illustrious thoughts that is cerebrally etched within me each time I blow Shofar.

As endearing memories play prominently in our minds and hearts, I truly remember as a child, having my father standing behind me as the Shofar was sounding. I recall how the blasts were at first alarming, almost frightening; and then with my father's comforting arms on my shoulders, I reflected on how auspicious they were, bringing the aura of the High Holidays to a special important level even more so than any other festival.

I also reflect on all the times when the Shofar was used as a symbol instrumental and monumental for gathering Am Yisrael, the People of Israel as a Kehilah, a special and unique Community, as

- 🌈 when Avraham sounded the Shofar as gratitude to Hashem
- 🌈 when the Shofar sounded at Mt Sinai as Hashem presented the Ten Commandments to Mosheh to the Bnai Yisrael
- 🌈 when the Shofar sounded so that the walls could tumble down so Joshua could take Jericho for the new freed and settled Hebrew nation
- 🌈 as the 'country crier' to proclaim the Jubilee Year for the gift of freedom commences
- 🌈 and so on for all the times the mighty Shofar was presaged to the sanctity, protection, and preservation of Kial Yisrael

I believe that this brings a continuance of Dor L'Dor, generation to generation for a grace and stronghold for the future.

REFLECTIONS OF A BAAL TIKEYAH - continued

Finally, there is the denouement when the call for Tikeyah Gidolah is pronounced, as I do my utmost to hold that note as long as I possibly can as if that fermata represents a sustained hope for the new year.

Eve and I are so fortunate to have been raised in Shules that were our second homes. That fortunate opportunity flourishes with the JCC of LBI. Our JCC of LBI for "shore" serves as a host venue for having astounding davening and amazing programs. The best part, of course, is that we are accorded the greatest gift of friendships with a cadre of congregants who have become family.

Each Tikeyah, Shevarim, Teruah, and Tikeyah Gidolah beckons me to proclaim that here is a great Shule! So please know that when my Shofar is shouting out the 100 blasts, it's my 'shout out' to all of you!

I thank our radiant Rabbi, our celebrated Cantor, the bold Board of Directors, and most of all to our JCC Mishpachah! Eve and I wish all of you a L'Shana Tovah Tikatevu! May you all be inscribed for a year of Health, Happiness, Peace, and Contentment with Love, Smiles, and Laughter!

General Membership Meeting

August 13, 2023

At the August 13, 2023 Congregation meeting, four members were elected to two year terms on the Board of Trustees. They were Terry Robinovitz and Mitch Frumkin elected to another term, and Ken Podos and Bonni Rubin-Sugarman elected as new members. Members Don Pripstein and Rob Van Naarden could not run this year because of the 3 term limit set in our Constitution.

Thirty one voting members were in attendance in person or by zoom, which barely gave a quorum of paid up voting members or households. Fourteen Board members were present, 10 in person and 4 by zoom.

August 13, 2023

Reports were given by Rabbi Jay, President - Phil Rosenzweig, Treasurer - Ira Morgenthal, Membership - Paul Levine, Office Mgr - Leslie Dinkfelt, Election - Michael Babst, Women's Auxiliary - Irene Babst, Constitution and Bylaws - Sherry Fruchterman, - High Holidays - Rose Valentine, Active Shooter Drill - Diane Buskirk, Raffles and Pavers - Diane Hoffman, Ocean County Film Festival - Rose Valentine, and Pickleball- Howard Fruchterman.

Among major items discussed in these reports were that while the congregation is in a strong financial condition, our expenses are exceeding our income. Costs for most things have increased, but the main contributor is Police Protection. For Friday evening and Saturday morning services as well as any events, we pay about $400. Also discussed were our flat membership numbers and a plea for everyone to help increase membership, recent and upcoming WAX events, specifics on this year's High Holiday tickets, and upcoming Ocean County Film Festival, P. Rosenzweig also thanked departing Board members Don Pripstein and Rob Van Naarden for all their service. The membership was reminded of such upcoming events as this week's Shabbat dinner, next Sunday's concert by Wendy & Rik, and our Active Shooter Drill.

There was no Old or New Business, and the meeting was adjourned.

A Pigeon and a Boy: A Novel

By Meir Shalev

During the 1948 War of Independence—a time when pigeons are still used to deliver battlefield messages—a gifted young pigeon handler is mortally wounded. In the moments before his death, he dispatches one last pigeon. The bird is carrying his extraordinary gift to the girl he has loved since adolescence. Intertwined with this story is the contemporary tale of Yair Mendelsohn, who has his own legacy from the 1948 war. Yair is a tour guide specializing in bird-watching trips who, in middle age, falls in love again with a childhood girlfriend. His growing passion for her, along with a gift from his mother on her deathbed, becomes the key to a life he thought no longer possible.

Unforgettable in both its particulars and its sweep, A Pigeon and A Boy is a tale of lovers then and now—of how deeply we love, of what home is, and why we, like pigeons trained to fly in one direction only, must eventually return to it. In a voice that is at once playful, wise, and altogether beguiling, Meir Shalev tells a story as universal as war and as intimate as a winged declaration of love.

Donation/Support Opportunities

Kol HaKavod

Please consider being a part of this campaign to supplement the clergy needs of our congregation.

This is a separate, voluntary commitment and is additional to your low annual dues obligation.

Chai Level:

$1,800 over three years ($600 a year)

Double Chai Level:

$3,600 over three years ($1,200 a year) Triple

Chai Level:

$5,400 over three years ($1,800 a year)

We will, of course, be grateful for a gift to the fund at any time. Please go to the web site to download the Kol HaKavod form:

JCC Kol Hakavod Link

or call the office for the form to be sent to you.

All donations will be anonymous.

Zena & Jerry Jay Kiddush Fund

The Zena and Jerry Jay Kiddush established in memory of Rabbi Jay's parents. Our Saturday morning kiddushes are not just a bite of gefilte fish and herring. Our worship community enjoys this special time when they can sit down to enjoy a Shabbat lunch and share a table with others. It is a wonderful community builder as well as an opportunity for sponsors to commemorate a special occasion, a yarhzeit or just to say thank you. Donations can be sent to the office. In addition, contact the office if you want to sponsor a kiddush.

YAHREIT PLAQUES

Individual plaques may be purchased in memory of a loved one. The price of a plaque is $250.

Additional plaques ordered at the same time are $225 each. A reserved plaque can be purchased for $75.

This plaque will be installed now and reserves that spot for future use.

Call the Office 609-492-4090 or click here to Order

Legacy Planning

If you are planning to initiate or change your will or estate plan, please remember and include the Jewish Community Center of Long Beach Island (JCC of LBI) as part of your legacy. The monies can be used for a specific purpose as designated by you or added to an endowment fund already set up to assure the ability to continue providing a full- service congregation to serve the Jewish people of the area.

This legacy can be accomplished by a simple bequest in your will, by one of the allowable charitable trusts wherein you get an immediate tax advantage, or through life insurance.

PLEASE DO IT NOW!

Please check with your attorney or insurance agent. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Don Pripstein (512) 694-2055 and diprip@gmail.com.

Endowment Fund

Join Herb and Selma z"l Shapiro to help assure the continuity of our JCC, and our ability to continue providing a full-service congregation to serve the Jewish people of the area.

A donation of at least $50,000 to the endowment fund will allow the donor to name one of the funds as the donor wishes. All such name funds will be joined together to be part of the endowment fund portfolio.

Judith z"l & Donald Pripstein have joined the Shapiros with a $50,000 donation and have established The Pripstein Family Endowment Fund.

Donald Pripstein established a second fund to be called 'The Judith & Donald Pripstein Endowment Fund'. As a result of Don's letter to the community, Harold Farin stepped forward and established 'The Farin Family Endowment Fund'.

All members are encouraged to help this important effort by contributing to this fund whether as a specific named fund, or as a general donation. our gift to the fund can be sent to the JCC Office. Please mark your check accordingly.
